CONTEMPORARY WEAVES

Trame contemporanee

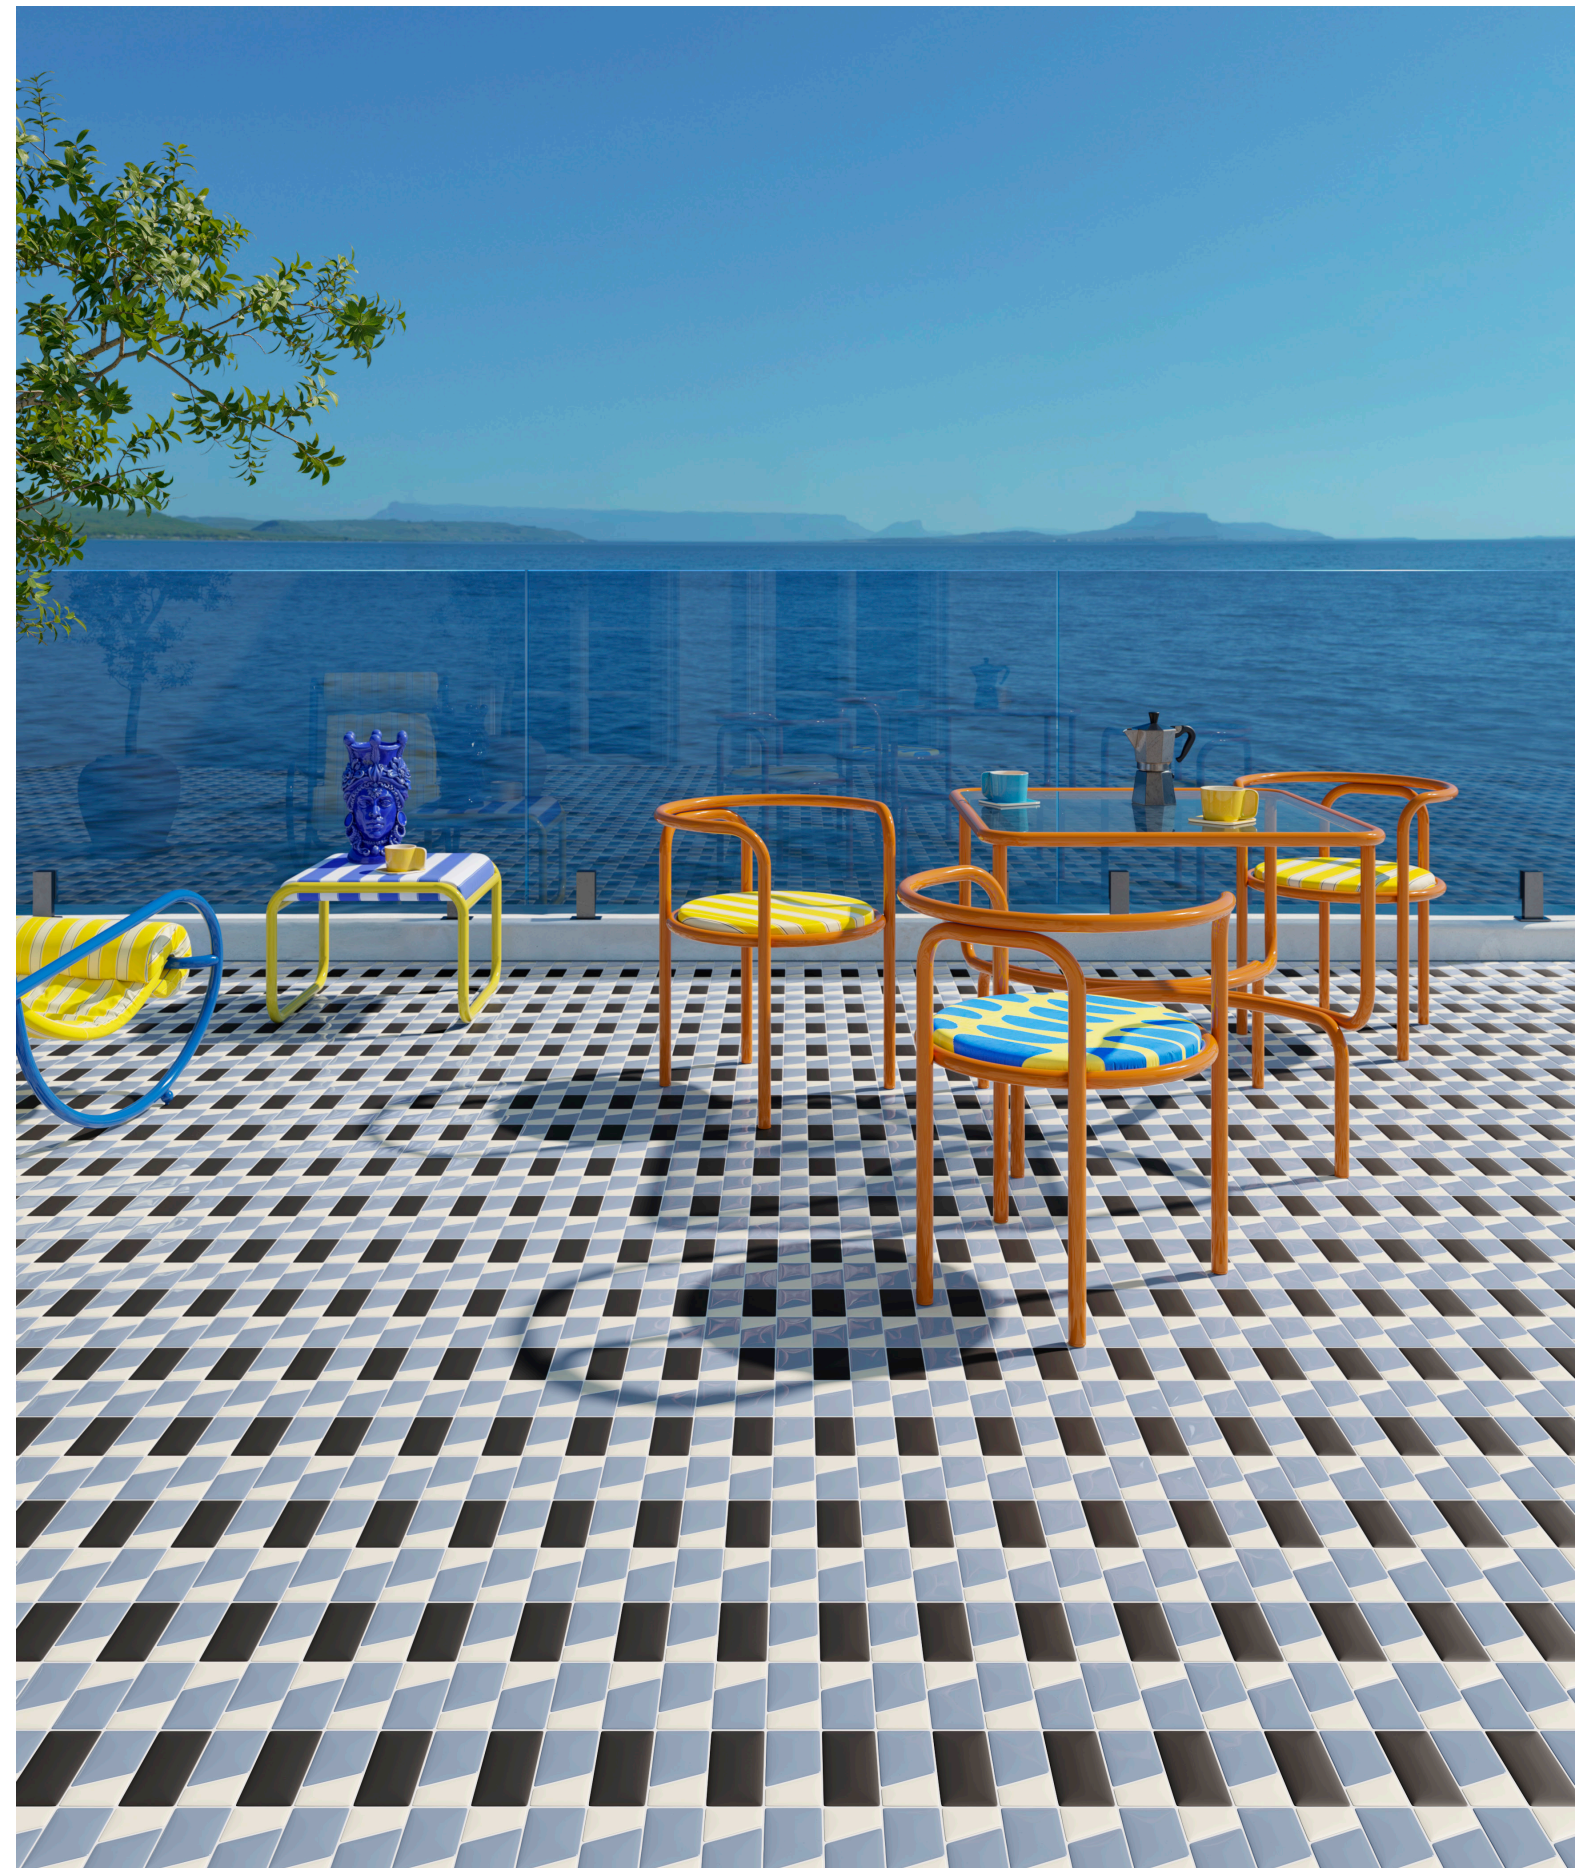

Atmosfere mediterranee, design e ispirazione all'artigianato marocchino si intrecciano in Kilim, la nuova collezione ceramica in gres porcellanato di Eccentrico, un racconto materico fatto di forme, colori e trame.

Ispirata alle zellige, le tipiche piastrelle smaltate della tradizione araba, Kilim reinterpreta in piccolo formato l'estetica dei tappeti "kilim": geometrici, simbolici, narrativi. Ogni elemento diventa un filo ideale in una trama personalizzata e unica, ogni progetto di posa un atto creativo.

Contemporary weaves

Blending Mediterranean charm with the design and inspiration of Moroccan craftsmanship, Kilim – the new porcelain stoneware collection by Eccentrico – offers a sensory narrative of shapes, colours, and textures.

Drawing inspiration from zellige, traditional Arabic glazed tiles, Kilim pays homage to the aesthetics of kilim rugs through small-format tiles evoking their geometric, symbolic, and narrative features. Each tile forms the warp and weft of uniquely crafted patterns, each arrangement an act of creation.

KILIM KHAT

Khat

Khat, che in arabo significa “linea” o “tratto”, foneticamente dialoga con la parola inglese cut: taglio. Quel taglio diagonale che lo caratterizza e lo rende unico. Un elemento pensato per essere ruotato, combinato, diretto secondo l'intuito del progettista, per creare pattern contemporanei, eleganti, sorprendenti.

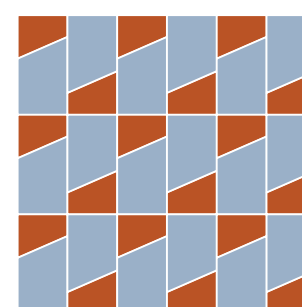

Khat, which means “line” or “stroke” in Arabic, phonetically converse with the English word cut: cut. That diagonal cut that characterises it and makes it unique. An element designed to be rotated, combined, directed according to the designer's intuition, to create contemporary, elegant, surprising patterns.
